

- 1) What are the main difficulties that a counselor might face in his/her clinical work with foreign students? And what strategies can be adopted to manage them?
- 2) What are the main characteristics and symptoms of social anxiety disorder?
- 3) Can you describe the main services for students at the University?

- 1) What is the balance of skills and why could it be a useful tool in the guidance of university students?
- 2) What are the main psychological concerns experienced by foreign students in their process of academic adaptation?
- 3) What is the "third mission of the University"?

1. What are the main actions suitable to support the social adjustment of foreign students to the Italian context?
2. How do you manage a student who wants to withdraw or discontinue his/her program of study?

3. Can you describe the functions of the Board of Directors at large?

Di seguito vengono riportate le due serie di domande non utilizzate:

1. How is structured a guidance path at the University?
  2. Why psychological counselling could be considered as a network service?
  3. Can you describe the main academic bodies?
-
1. What do we mean with the term “soft skills”, and why soft skills are important for the academic success of university students?
  2. What are the main difficulties in the field of communication and interpersonal relations experienced by foreign students?
  3. What are the functions of the Rector?

K S L M