The petitioner’s procedure is not allowed anymore when the mentioned deadline has passed and, in any case, after the setting-up of the selection Committee. If all the candidates declare that there are no grounds for recusal, the deadline referred to in the first period ceases to run in advance and the Committee can start work. The Committee can hold its meetings online, except for the activities related to the discussion and evaluation of the qualifications and the scientific publications submitted by the candidates and in case of a language skills assessment, without prejudice to any authorization from the Rector

Art. 7

Selection committee's fulfilments

The Committee in the above-mentioned meeting will:

- appoint the President and the Secretary for the minutes;
- enter in the minutes a declaration released by each member and stating the nonexistence of the causes of abstention pursuant to arts. 51 and 52 of the Italian Code of civil procedure;
- establish the criteria for the preliminary evaluation of the candidates (Ministerial Decree 05/25/2011 n. 243);
- establish the criteria to be used for the acknowledgment of a score to the qualifications and to each publication sent by the candidates, admitted to the discussion;

At the end of the first meeting, the minutes containing the assessment criteria and schemes is delivered to the person in charge of the procedure in order to ensure the required publicity on the University's Official Register, at least for seven days, before the next and coming selection Committee session.

Pursuant to paragraph 2 letter c) of the art. 24 - Law n. 240/2010, the selection procedure will foresee a first preliminary evaluation of the candidates, with an explained and analytical evaluation decision referred to the qualifications, curriculum and on the scientific productions, including the PhD thesis, according to criteria and parameters recognized also in the international context and identified with the Ministerial Decree n. 243/2011 as per the following art. 8 of this announcement.

In this case, the list of those admitted will be notified, before the scheduled date for discussion, by means of a notice that will be published in the Official University Register and on the University website at the page: <http://bit.ly/ricercatoriTD>.

After the preliminary assessment, the most deserving candidates are admitted to the public discussion of qualifications and scientific production. A number between 10% and 20% of candidates and however not less than six units will be admitted. If the number of the applicants is equal to or less than six, all of them will be admitted to the public discussion and the above-mentioned preliminary evaluation will not be carried out.

The selection procedure acts consist of the minutes of the meetings and the final report about the works carried out by the Commission. The individual and collective decisions expressed for each candidate during the preliminary assessment, as well as the scores assigned to the qualifications and to each publication of the candidates admitted to the public discussion, are integral and necessary part of the minutes.

At the end of the work, the Commission appoints the winner, with a final resolution approved by the majority of the members,

The Commission must conclude all the selection phases within three months from the deadline referred in art. 6 of this announcement.

The Rector may extend the deadline for the conclusion of the work for one time and for no more than one month in case of proven and exceptional reasons indicated by the President of the Commission.

Art. 8

Qualifications and curriculum assessment

The preliminary evaluation of the candidates, with motivated analytical decision based on the qualifications, on the curriculum and on the scientific production, including the PhD thesis, is carried out before the public discussion, according to the criteria as per art. 2 of the Ministerial Decree 25.05.2011 n. 243.

The selection Commissions carry out an exhausted evaluation phase, followed by a comparative evaluation, making reference to the specific competition sector and to the possible profile defined exclusively through indication of one or more scientific disciplinary sectors, of the curriculum and of the following titles, duly documented, of the candidates:

- A. PhD or equivalent, or, for the concerned sectors, the medical specialization diploma or equivalent, obtained in Italy or abroad;
- B. any teaching activity carried out at Universities in Italy or abroad;

The evaluation of each qualification as mentioned in the previous paragraph is carried out, taking in consideration the value compared to the quality and quantity of the research activities, carried out by each candidate.

Art. 9 Scientific production assessment

The selection committees, during the preliminary comparative evaluation of the candidates, take into consideration only publications or texts accepted for publication according to the regulations in force, as well as essays included in collective works and articles published in journals, in paper or digital format, with the exclusion of internal notes or departmental reports.

The PhD thesis or equivalent qualifications are taken into consideration, even if in the absence of the conditions referred to in this paragraph.

The selection committees carry out the publications comparative evaluation as referred to in paragraph, on the basis of the following criteria:

- a) originality, innovation, methodological rigor and relevance of each scientific publication;
- b) congruence of each publication to the competition sector where the procedure is announced and with the possible profile, defined exclusively by indicating one or more scientific-disciplinary sectors, or with related interdisciplinary topics;
- c) scientific relevance of the editorial location of each publication and its dissemination within the scientific community;
- d) analytical determination, also on the basis of recognized criteria in the international scientific community of reference, of the individual contribution of the candidate in the event of his / her participation in collaborative works.

The selection committees must also evaluate the overall quality of the candidate's scientific production, its strength/quantity and temporal continuity, apart from the period of non-voluntary removal from the research's activity, if explained enough, and in particular in relation to the parental leave/maternity leave. With regard to the competition's sectors, as internationally recognized, the commissions, in evaluating the publications, also apply the following parameters/indicators, within the application deadline terms:

- e) total number of academic citations;
- f) average number of academic citations per publication;
- g) "impact factor" total weight;
- h) average "impact factor" per publication;

- i) Combinations of the previous parameters to enhance the impact of the candidate's scientific production (Hirsch index or similar).

Art. 10

Oral exam and public discussion of qualifications and scientific production

Following the aforementioned preliminary assessment and the consequent admission of the most deserving candidates or all of them, in the event that the candidates are equal to or less than 6, the Commission proceeds to the public discussion of the qualifications and the scientific production and to the simultaneous carrying out of the oral exam, aimed at ascertaining adequate knowledge of the expected foreign language. The oral exam is public.

The day, the location, and the time of the test will be communicated through a notice that will be published in the Official University Register and on the University website at the page: <http://bit.ly/ricercatoriTD>.

The publication of the aforementioned notices to the Official University Register will have the value of notification for all participants in the selection, without the obligation of any further communication.

The Administration assumes no responsibility for the failure to read the notices and it will, in any case, be the responsibility of the candidates to keep themselves informed by consulting the Official University Register and the University website at the page: <http://bit.ly/ricercatoriTD> to find information on selections.

Following the discussion, the Commission assigns a score to the qualifications and to each of the publications presented by the candidates admitted to the discussion, according to the criteria already indicated in art. n. 8 and 9 and established in the minutes n. 1.

The Commission, in assigning scores to qualifications and to each of the publications, is required to reserve for publications no less than 70% of the maximum score.

To take the aforementioned test, candidates must have only one of the following valid identification documents:

- identity card;
- firearms license;
- driving license;
- boat license;
- passport;
- identification cards issued by a State Administration, provided they have a photograph and a stamp or other equivalent signature.
