Our Winter School offers language courses for every level, 40 hours of classes and workshops in two weeks, qualified teachers, entry and final tests, tutoring service and learning materials. In the afternoons you will discover the culture and the art of Sicily, while practicing your Italian.

And you will never be alone! The teachers will help you during the classes and the School staff will help you with all the practical services (filling in your registration form, finding an accommodation at a reasonable price, using the University canteen and so forth). You will also meet Italian students from the University of Palermo who will take part in the Winter School and who will spend their spare time with you.

Studying Italian has never been so easy!
